RE: Qualifying Charitable Organization – Approval

Greetings Mr. Young:

Arizona Disabled Veteran Foundation meets all criteria to be considered a Qualifying Charitable Organization. Your organization's assigned QCO Code is: 20069. This QCO code will identify your organization to donors seeking to utilize the tax credit. Your organization's name will be added to the list of Qualifying Charitable Organizations on the Arizona Department of Revenue website. You can find the list on the Arizona Department of Revenue website at azdor.gov. Just click on "Tax Credits", "Contributions to Qualifying Charitable Organizations" and then select the 2022 QCO list.

Enclosed is a certificate acknowledging that your organization meets all criteria to be considered a Qualifying Charitable Organization. You may display the certificate or keep it in a file. This certification does not apply to or exempt your organization from Arizona transaction privilege (sales) and use taxes.

The department may periodically request organizations to recertify their status. Your charity's status is valid for the entire 2022 calendar year and until you hear from us again. Your organization must also notify the department of any changes (i.e. address, name change, primary contact) with the organization. Please also contact us if the organization makes a significant change in the services provided and/or the population served so that we may ascertain whether or not the organization continues to meet the criteria as a Qualifying Charitable Organization.

Thank you for your request to qualify your organization as part of the tax credit for charitable organizations.

Sincerely,
